

Baltic Marine Litter

04 - 04 May 2021

Poll results

Table of contents

- 1. Have you ever participated in a clean-up activity in your community?
- 2. What do you see as most relevant? (only one answer possible)
- 3. Who are you? (only one answer possible)
- Marine Litter Working Group survey

1. Have you ever participated in a clean-up activity in your community?

0 2 8

Yes

No

I don't know

2. What do you see as most relevant? (only one answer possible)

030

Waste prevention

Waste reduction

Waste recycling

3. Who are you? (only one answer possible)

030

(1/2)

Company involved in the plastic cycle (producer, recycler, waste management)

 3 %

Designer

 0 %

Authority involved in the plastic cycle (e.g. waste management, circular economy, environmental protection)

 13 %

Researcher (macro-plastic)

 10 %

Researcher (micro-plastic)

 7 %

3. Who are you? (only one answer possible)
(2/2)

030

Researcher (both types of plastic)

NGO

Other

Marine Litter Working Group survey (1/3)

0 1 8

1. What is your main expertise in the field of marine litter? Please indicate a term (e.g. micro-litter, waste design, substitution of plastic products, deposit schemes etc.)

2. Which activities do you see as most relevant for a Baltic Marine Litter Working Group? (multiple answers possible)

Regular (online) meetings

Clear definition of key topics

Clear definition of responsibilities for specific topics

Cooperation in projects

Joint assessment of available funding opportunities

Marine Litter Working Group survey (3/3)

0 2 1

3. Which strategic action would you suggest for the Baltic Marine Litter Working Group? (multiple answers possible)

(1/2)

New technologies for monitoring of gear and other plastic waste in the BSR

Up-scale and transfer of approaches for recycling of fishing gear and other plastic waste

Actively influence the on-going discussions about the implementation of the Single-Use-Plastic Directive

Eco-toxicological research

Marine Litter Working Group survey (3/3)

0 2 1

3. Which strategic action would you suggest for the Baltic Marine Litter Working Group? (multiple answers possible)

(2/2)

Waste management related research

Eco-design research

Plastic waste governance

